

Matthew Patrick McCauley retired in 2003 from General American Life Insurance as Vice President, Secretary, and General Counsel. He was also Vice-President, General Counsel, Secretary, and Director in some instances, of a large number of subsidiaries and affiliated companies including: General American Capital Company; Paragon Life Insurance Company; and Walnut Securities, Inc. In addition, he served as General Counsel and Secretary of Reinsurance Group of America and GenCare Health Systems. He received his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law. In 1968 to 1972 he served as the Assistant Dean of the University of Michigan Law School. After law school Mr. McCauley was an Africa-Asian Public Service Fellow assigned to the Industrial Development Corporation of Zambia. Mr. McCauley is currently President and Chief Executive Officer of Galen Insurance Company and Galen Insurance Management Company, Inc.

Board Affiliations:

Former Chair and Board Member, University City Planning Commission
University City Child's Center
Past President, Harvard Club of St. Louis
Board Member, U City in Bloom